

Case 15

section show piece of skin with a broad asymmetric lesion ~~containing~~ containing moderately atypical melanocytes in the dermis. The junction shows a lentiginous proliferation of atypical melanocytes with atrophy of the epidermis. The features are of melanoma.

Histo Royal College Profirma for Reporting Melanoma

Histological type :: Superficial spreading type

Growth Invasion :: Yes.

growth phase - vertical.

mitosis - 0/mm²

Regression - Absent

Tumour infiltrating lymphocytes - Absent

~~Reg~~ ulceration - Not seen.

(3)

Margins :: In situ and Invasive | → Reach Peripheral margin.

Deep margin :: dont remember the exact distance.

Additional work up

- I will perform HMB45/S100/Melan-A → All positive.
- Inform clinicians about margin involvement.